

SHORT CORN DROPS HARD SEN CON HIGHER AS CROP IMPROVES

Only One Trade in September
Wheat in Chicago—Hogs
at $19.65, New Record.

Chicago, Aug. 20.—Corn prices pursued an uneven course today. Liquidation which sent prices down early being followed by demand from shorts which moved the figures above yesterday's closing prices. The close was strong, 1/8¢ higher, with December at $1.07 1/2, and May at $1.07 1/2. The date advanced 1/4¢ to 1 1/4¢ in provisions, final figures showed an advance of from 3¢ to 15¢.

Corn prices developed an overcast condition soon after noon, and a late rally carried prices up, shorts being generally forced to cover regardless of the crop outlook, which continued excellent. The close was strong, 1/8¢ higher, with December at $1.07 1/2, and May at $1.07 1/2. The date advanced 1/4¢ to 1 1/4¢ in provisions, final figures showed an advance of from 3¢ to 15¢.

There was virtually no trade in wheat, but one transaction being recorded in September, the only option in which there was trading. This deal was at $2.05, 1/2¢ above Saturday's closing.

Wheat—Improvement noted in North-western conditions, but the outlook was much better than at end of July. The figures of Mr. Hoover estimating that the crop was 1,100,000,000 bushels of wheat and 1,100,000,000 bushels of corn, against the estimate of 1,000,000,000 bushels of wheat and 1,000,000,000 bushels of corn, was a significant improvement.
